RACINE

Population, 58,593 (U. S. Census, 1920). The capital and seat of justice of Racine county, is a city picturesquely and advantageously located on the west shore of Lake Michigan, at the mouth of the Root river, 25 miles south of Milwaukee and 60 north of Chicago. It is blessed by every condition to make a city attractive, progressive and prosperous and not the least important is its fine transportation facilities. Its magnificent harbor, one of the finest on the great lakes, accessible to the largest vessels afloat, gives the city prestige and advantages as respects transportation by water. The C. & N. W. and the C., M. & St. P. Rys. give it direct connection with all the great centers throughout the country, while the electric street railways reach all parts of the city and give it connection with neighboring towns. Racine's natural resources, the productiveness of its contributory territory, its superb climate and rail and water facilities, together with the energy and enterprise of its citizens, all go to make up a community that cannot fail to grow in wealth and prosperity. These attributes are responsible for the building of this hustling trade center with public utilities and conveniences equal to any place in the country. Its paved streets, churches, schools, theatres, parks, street railways and public buildings have that quality of excellence that is not found in any city of equal size in the Union. Racine has the largest number of manufacturing in comparison with its population of any city in the country. There are over 350 diversified industries, many of which are large factories with many thousands of employes. Their annual payroll in normal times exceeds $15,000,000 with an annual output of manufactured goods to the value of over $30,000,000. It is necessary to visit the manufacturing district to fully realize the importance and diversity of the products. It is one of the finest residential cities in the state. The environments are delightful, the climate is perfect and the sanitary precautions are enlightened and vigilant. There are churches representing the leading religious denominations. While the citizens of Racine have been striving for and making a place for themselves and their city in the world of affairs, and while they have been building up a town commercially and industrially, they have not neglected to develop and perfect an unsurpassed public school system of primary, grammar and high schools. Racine has a High and 19 grade schools, and in addition there are colleges, academies, private and parochial schools. There are 6 strong banks, with capital and surplus of $1,873,000 and deposits of $17,147,000, fine hospitals, a public library, retail stores that offer metropolitan selection, hotels with excellence of management, a handsomely appointed opera house and smaller moving picture theatres and lecture halls bringing the best attractions to the city. The press is represented by 2 daily newspapers, the Journal-News and the Times-Call; a weekly, the Wisconsin Agriculturist, and a semi-weekly, the Labor Advocate. With such a record as has been achieved by Racine, it needs no prophet to outline the future of this thriving city. It must become greater and greater, not only in the matter of growth in population and business, but also in all that makes a wide awake, progressive community. The secretary of the Racine Commercial Club, Mr. Walter H Reed, will reply to any inquiries regarding Racine and its interests. Telegraph, telephones and express facilities. George H. Hersog, postmaster.

VISION

Beautifully illustrated, eloquently written advertisements, prepared without the vision that results only from years of broad business experience, are as bubbles floating at the will of the winds.

Advertising planned and prepared with a thorough understanding and appreciation of business and marketing problems—anchored down to facts—will reach its goal.

An advertising agency, whose personnel is composed of business executives as well as advertising experts, can make yours such dollar-producing advertising.

The vision and experience of the printer, editor, advertising manager, art buyer, artist, space buyer, sales manager, purchasing agent, banker, manufacturer and retailer are at your command in the service of this Agency.

The Sign of Dependable
Tools

Farmers and dealers all over the United States and the world know by the Plow-In-Hand Trade Mark

THE QUALITY LINE Original J. I. CASE PLOWS Planters and Tillage Tools

The many different types, styles and sizes of Walking Plows, Sulky Plows, Tractor Drawn Power Lift Plows, Moldboard and Disc Plows, with many other special shares and moldboards, are all built on honor, and are of the highest quality of materials and workmanship.

The same is true of the various designs of Cultivators, Harrows, Listers, and different Corn, Cotton, Pea, Bean, Peanut and other Planters, the Stalk Cutters, the Eveners and Equalizers, and the Fertilizer Attachments and other Accessories built and sold by this famous old company.

The constant aim of this company is to maintain and perpetuate the reputation of this justly famed line of implements.

Write for full description.

and that we are entitled to the exclusive use of the word CASE on all plows and tillage implements, and in all catalogs and advertisements of same. Notice by any other concern regarding CASE plows is given because of this Supreme Court order, that our rights, the rights of the dealer and the rights of the public may be protected.

WALLIS

America's Foremost Tractor

Plows and Tills More Acres Per Hour

The Wallis will do its work economically season after season. That is the real test—the test of performance in the field that puts a smile of satisfaction on the faces of Wallis owners.

combination: Strength, Lightness and Speed.

The Wallis is the lightest weight tractor developing equal power on the market. The patented one-piece, U-Shaped frame of boiler steel, making a light rigid foundation for the powerful smooth-running Wallis Motor, is assurance of providing an unexcelled

The high grade of materials and workmanship, cut and finely finished gears enclosed from dust and running in a bath of clean oil, the elimination of destructive vibration by means of rigid frame, carefully balanced parts and fine workmanship, all help in assuring long life for the Wallis Tractor.

The WALLIS Thresher

works especially well with the Wallis Tractor. Send for description of this Wonderfully Dependable Modern Tractor, and this Sturdy Satisfaction-giving Thresher.
